PASSAGE RECONSTRUCTION MEASURE DELAYED AS CONTROVERSY DEVELOPS OVER PROVISION TO AID FARMERS

Washington, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Farmer representatives in the house were check-mated today when they sought to include further agricultural relief provisions in the $2,000,000,000 reconstruction corporation bill.

The parliamentary tangle into which the controversy threw the house may delay a vote until tomorrow, as the house was only half way through the bill when it was sidetracked on the farm relief question.

Agricultural leaders tried, without success, to include a provision similar to that voted in the senate, providing $50,000,000 for direct loans to farmers to be dealt out by the secretary of agriculture.

The bill in its house form sets aside $200,000,000 of the huge credit fund for loans to farmers through the intermediate credit banks and agricultural associations. Since there is no such provision in the senate bill already passed, farm leaders fear it may be thrown out of the house bill by a record vote later.

An amendment by Rep. Chavez, Dem., N. M., to authorize loans to reclamation and drainage district associations was ruled out of order on objection of Rep. Luce, Rep., Mass., that it was not germane.

Capone Nemesis Wins Reward

Judge James H. Wilkerson, above, of Chicago, who received nationwide acclaim for helping crush the powerful Capone gang in Chicago, has received his reward—nomination by President Hoover for judge of the U. S. circuit court of appeals, seventh district. Wilkerson is the judge who told Al Capone that he couldn't bargain with the court for a light sentence if he pleaded guilty to income tax fraud and liquor law violation.

DR. G. I. BADEAUX IS CHIEF OF STAFF BRAINERD HOSPITAL

ST. JOSEPH'S STAFF ELECTS OUT OF CITY MEN TO SUPPORT ING OFFICES

Dr. G. I. Badeaux, Brainerd, is the chief of staff of the St. Joseph's hospital for the ensuing year.

The doctor was named to this position at a meeting of the staff at the hospital last night.

Other officers elected were: Dr. E. W. Kelly, Atkin, vice chief of staff; Dr. A. E. Rosenfeld, Pequot, secretary and treasurer.

Reports of the year 1931 were received and concerned principally the program at the hospital.

Obstacles Retard Enactment of Bills to Free "Frozen" Deposits

CHILDREN ESCAPE AS FLOODS INUNDATE 5 TOWNS, RAZE SCHOOL

DAM GIVES WAY SHORTLY AFTER DISMISSAL, SAVING LIVES OF 200

Truro, N. S., Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Two hundred school children narrowly escaped death late yesterday when a dam broke and the water swept through five towns and washed their schoolhouse away.

The torrent swept along a twenty-five mile front, destroying property worth several hundred thousands of dollars, and threatening many lives.

One man is dead and several are missing.

Today several crews of men, hastily recruited from the stricken countryside, were struggling to divert the flood waters to streams and rivers.

Obstructions are being blasted to clear the way for the rushing water. The towns of Acadia Mines, Londonderry and Great Village are the worst hit.

Only the hour of the disaster saved the school children. They had been dismissed only a short time before the rushing waters struck their school house without warning.

The water still is rising.

FREAK TORNADO HITS TENNESSEE TAKING TOLL OF TEN LIVES

TWISTER DIPS DOWN ON FARM HOME KILLING NINE MEM- BERS OF ONE FAMILY

Trenton, Tenn., Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The body of three-year-old James Rice, found in a debris-strewn field near his home today brought to 10 the number of fatalities in a tornado last night.

Nine of the victims were members of the Rice family. James had been missing since the storm.

The tornado demolished the home of W. P. Rice, killing outright the mother, three daughters, two sons and a neighbor's child.

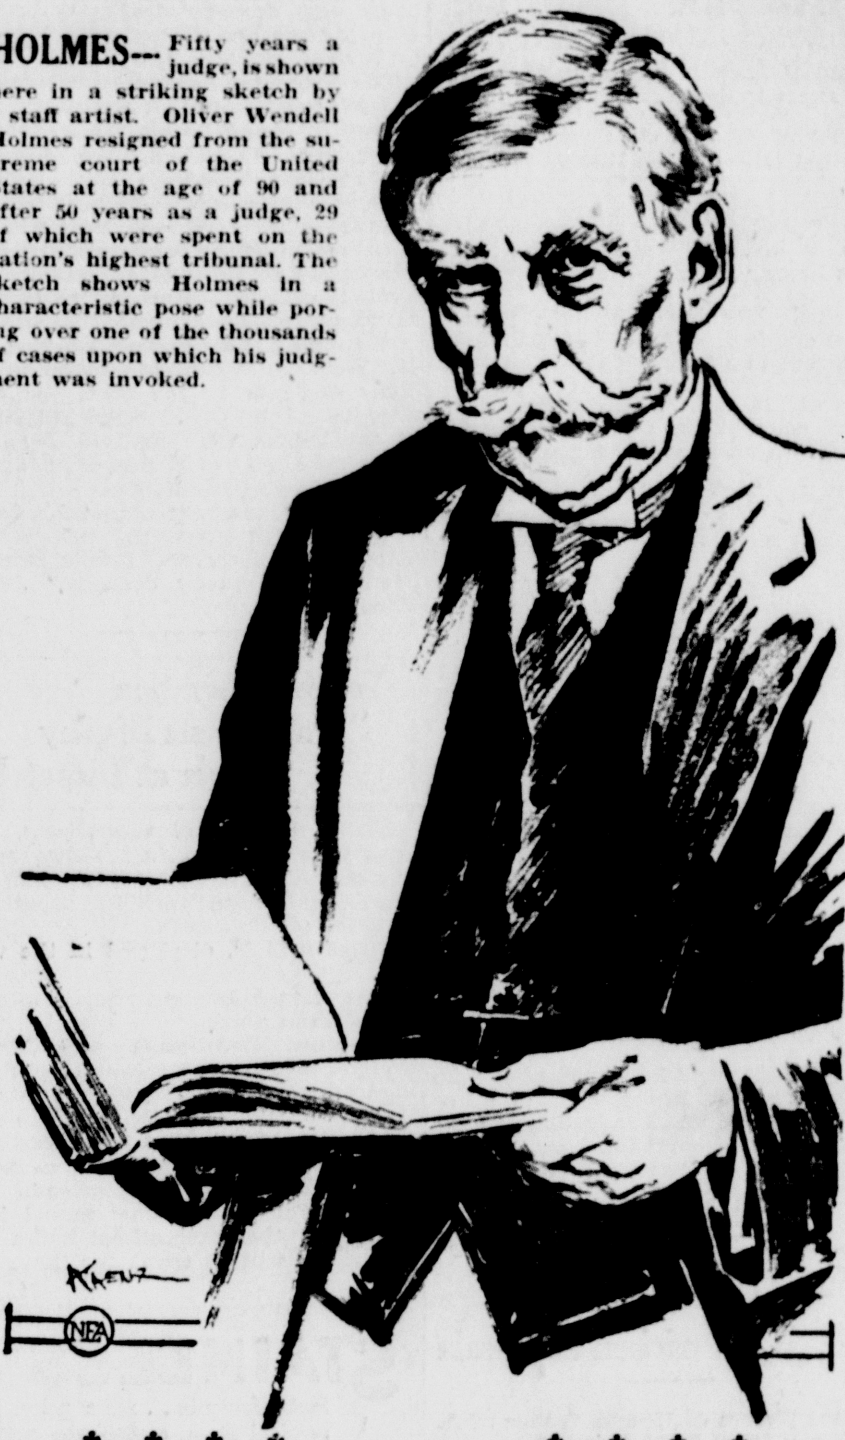

The dead:

Mrs. W. P. Rice, 45; her daughters, Opal, 15, Hazel, 12, and Edith, 9; her sons, Thomas, 6 months, and Junior, 5; and Elsie McDaniel, 4, her granddaughter. Those fatally injured were W. P. Rice, 45, and a son, Horace, 7.

Maryanne Rice, 16, and Mrs. Rice's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lucille Rice, 19, were injured severely.

S. H. Crenshaw, a neighbor, saw the twister strike. He summoned an ambulance. The injured were removed to the hospital here. No other deaths or property damage from the storm was reported.

HOLMES—Fifty years a judge, is shown here in a striking sketch by a staff artist. Oliver Wendell Holmes resigned from the supreme court of the United States at the age of 90 and after 50 years as a judge, 29 of which were spent on the nation's highest tribunal. The sketch shows Holmes in a characteristic pose while poring over one of the thousands of cases upon which his judgment was invoked.

Washington, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—President Hoover is expected to reach a decision soon, possibly today, on a successor to Oliver Wendell Holmes in the supreme court.

The president, since Justice Holmes' resignation earlier in the week, has devoted much time to the consideration of persons high in the legal profession who have been brought to his attention as candidates. The court is in session and prompt action is deemed imperative. A steady stream of callers, including numerous senators, has discussed the qualifications of this candidate and that—with as yet no inkling as to who will be chosen.

WISCONSIN ADOPTS BRITISH BELIEVE INSURANCE PLAN U. S. STAND CLOUDS FOR UNEMPLOYED DEBTS CONFERENCE

ONLY THE SIGNATURE OF GOV. LA FOLLETTE NEEDED TO EFFECT MEASURE

Madison, Wis., Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Only the signature of Gov. Phillip La Follette was wanted today to initiate unemployment insurance in Wisconsin—the first state to take such action.

He was expected to sign the measure which was passed by both houses of the legislature.

The bill makes the plan compulsory unless employers adopt a similar system voluntarily embracing 175,000 employees by July 1, 1933.

The employers are required by the act to contribute an amount equal to two per cent of their weekly payroll to establish a fund totaling $75 for each employee eligible for the benefit.

The employees give nothing.

The maximum benefit would be $100 a year, paid at a rate of $10 a week and not more than 50 per cent of the average weekly wage for not more than 10 weeks a year.

HOMICIDE CHARGE FACES SMITH'S SON AFTER CAR FATALITY

SON OF EX-GOVERNOR OF NEW YORK HELD AFTER HIS AUTO KILLS MAN

New York, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Walter Smith, youngest son of former Gov. Alfred E. Smith, was arraigned in homicide court today after his automobile killed a man. He pleaded not guilty to a technical charge of homicide and was released in $1,000 bail for hearing Jan. 22.

His brother, Alfred E. Smith, Jr., was called to police headquarters after his arrest.

There is no statement to make. It was an unfortunate accident. Everything was on the up and up. I am going to defend him," Smith, Jr., said.

Smith's car killed Harry Wallace, 55, when Wallace crossed Lexington avenue against the red lights at 128th street. Smith stopped at once and rushed Wallace to Harlem hospital where he was pronounced dead.

After being detained in the hospital, Smith was taken to the East 126th street station where he was locked up in a cell.

MAJOR OPPOSITION BUT MINOR DETAILS BAR EARLY PASSAGE

MEASURES DESIGNED TO AID DE- POSITORS CLOSED BANKS AND OWNERS MORTGAGED HOME

Washington, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Bills to aid depositors in closed banks and owners of mortgaged homes today are on the road to enactment but with many obstacles ahead. Major opposition to fundamental purposes of the bills has not yet developed, but a Massillon, O., Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—"General" Jacob S. Coxey flung his hat into the presidential arena today by declaring himself a republican candidate on the same platform that won him the majority race last fall.

His platform calls for issuance of bonds of graduating denominations for public improvements and to provide labor for the unemployed.

A multitude of technical objections has been raised against each.

Both are pet projects of President Hoover.

The depositors' relief corporation would have a revolving fund of $150,000,000, of which $50,000,000 would come from the surplus accumulated by federal reserve banks and $100,000,000 from the treasury. The corporation would be authorized to borrow or issue bonds for four times that revolving fund, making an aggregate of $750,000,000 with which to operate.

The treasury would be authorized to subscribe a maximum $150,000,000 to the capital stock of the proposed federal home loan bank system, although private subscribers would be given first opportunity to subscribe the full amounts. There would be 12 banks in this system, none of less than $5,000,000 capital.

Undersecretary of Treasury Mills believes the depositors relief corporation would expedite payment of about 30 per cent of deposits now held in closed banks. The percentage would vary with individual banks. Mills expects the corporation to lend about $20,000,000 to banks which closed in 1931 with assets of about $1,750,000,000.

H. C. Robinson of the Guardian Trust Co., Cleveland, testifying before a sub-committee, gave a picture of conditions in Ohio. He said it was reported that $1,200,000,000 was "tied up" in Ohio building associations.

The home loan bank project would free such deposits. Building and loan associations, savings banks and insurance companies which lend on home mortgages could take their mortgages to the home loan bank in any district and borrow on that security. There is no such rediscount facility now available to institutions which lend on home mortgages.

Hoover in Background as Aides Prepare Campaign

Washington, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—President Hoover is refusing to discuss his personal political future with anyone, it was said at the White House today.

"The president refuses to see anyone on personal politics or to discuss personal politics," a White House official said. "The president is giving his undivided attention to his relief program and problems confronting the country and is not thinking about personal politics at this time."

This word was evoked by Postmaster General Brown's announcement that activities are about to begin to inaugurate President Hoover's renomination. Brown said the president's name would be entered in state primaries in accordance with the various legal requirements.

There has never been any doubt among Republicans, Brown said, but that Mr. Hoover would be renominated. Various cabinet members have already made speeches forecasting this. Secretary of War Hurley is shortly to make a speaking tour in the interest of Mr. Hoover.

The president, it is understood, has taken the position that he must give his undivided attention to assisting economic recovery.

TECHNICAL DETAILS LABOR, RAIL WAGE SLASH IRONED OUT

PRELIMINARY DETAILS TO CON- FERENCE COMPLETED, WIL- LARD SAYS

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, and chairman of the committee of nine railroad presidents, announced today that "technical difficulties" preliminary to the wage conference had been overcome.

Davis B. Robertson, general chairman of the Railway Labor Executives' association, said the conference between railway capital and labor, three times postponed, would start at 2 p. m. Willard did not explain what the "technical difficulties" were. It was reported that two large railroads had balked at the program drawn up by the railroad committee for presentation to the workers. Willard would not comment on the report.

From a source among the conferees, it was learned that much of the preliminary work of the joint conference had been swept aside by the separate meetings among employers and employees.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Here are some significant figures in the Chicago financial situation:

Population 3,500,000.

Total value taxable property $40,000,000,000.

Number unemployed 625,000.

Supported by charity 500,000.

Taxes uncollected $140,000,000.

Unpaid city employees 30,000. (Including teachers).

Unpaid school teachers 14,000.

Amount owed to teachers $20,000,000.

Relief fund raised for charity $10,500,000.

Remains unpaid. While 88 per cent of the 1928 taxes was sent in, only 65 per cent of the 1929 assessment was met and the 1930 and 1931 tax statements lie on the city treasurer's desks unassent.

The middle dates from a reassessment a few years ago. Middle class folk complained that $15,000,000,000 in personal property, trust estates, bank deposits and other holdings of the rich had been left off the tax rolls. Irrate home owners organized, retained attorneys.

A test case was brought in behalf of Mrs. Lillian Clear, an Oak Park widow. She refused to pay taxes on her home because the assessment was unfair.

"Scandalous and a crying shame," she said of the tax apportionment. "What can be fair about an assessment that deliberately omits $15,000,000,000 of taxable wealth?"

Judge Jarecki declared the 1928 and 1929 tax rolls void. Since the 1930 roll was based on that of 1928, it also presumably is illegal.

The decision was appealed to the Illinois supreme court this week. Unless the high court reverses Judge Jarecki, the whole taxing scheme of the city and county will have to be revamped before taxpayers can be compelled to pay.

Last Tuesday, Superior Judge Charles A. Williams issued a writ of mandamus compelling the board of review to place the $15,000,000,000 of personal property in the tax lists. If the supreme court upholds that order enough valuation would be added to cut the tax rate in half.

But how soon the complicated tangle of suits, appeals and writs can be cleared up so money will actually start pouring into municipal coffers again is problematical. The state legislature, meeting in special session to pass laws to remake the tax machinery, is at logger heads. One relief bill was killed in a test vote. It will be reconsidered next week.

Whatever the cause, the crisis grows hourly more acute. There is a tenseness even where want, cold and hunger have not yet laid clutch. Knowing that hundreds of thousands are existing from meal to meal by charity, the millions who have not yet suffered have begun to wonder.

"Will we be next, if the city goes under?" is a question none can answer now.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The mighty forces that drove Al Capone from rule of the rackets gathered anew today to fight an athletic young man who has stepped into the gangster's place.

This time the conflict cropped out in the cleaners and dyers' controversy, with the murder last week by gang executioners of Benjamin Rosenberg.

Today found the "secret six," crime-fighting corps of the Association of Commerce, leaders of the Illinois Manufacturers' association, the state's attorney and police combining to fight the latest gang menace, Murray Humphreys, a calm-speaking, black-haired young hoodlum with the build of an athlete, as the successor to "Scarface Al's" control of the rackets.

The place was offered to Johnny,

Youthful aviation enthusiasts, imbued with the sparkling achievements of noted fliers, are fast cultivating the necessary ground work for successful exploits of the future.

Three models, displayed in the window of The Daily Dispatch, are evidence of their interest and the precision of their work.

To Billy McCollough and Frank Wright belongs the ownership of the models. Not content with fruits of their labors thus far, the youthful duo yesterday came to The Daily Dispatch seeking paper sufficient for a model plane with a 6-foot wing spread.

Perfecting of the new model indicates how the after school hours and Saturdays will be spent for these two lads.

MEAL AFTER MEAL—day after day—even year after year, you'll get the same pleasure from Hills Bros. Coffee. It never varies in flavor! Here is the reason:

Instead of bulk-roasting... Hills Bros. use their patented Controlled Roasting process. The blend flows through the roasters in an even, continuous stream... a little at a time.

The roast that results can't be equalled for accuracy! No berry is underdone nor overdone—all are roasted to the same perfect degree... with a marvelous, unvarying flavor. It is a flavor no other coffee can have, because Hills Bros. patented the process.

Variation prevented by Controlled Roasting—Hills Bros' patented process

"A little at a time"—instead of in bulk—permits uniform roasting all the time

Hills Bros. Coffee can't go stale! The vacuum process of packing coffee is the only method that fully preserves coffee freshness—the air is removed from the can and kept out. It was originated by Hills Bros. over thirty years ago. There is no magic about a vacuum can—it will not make poor coffee good, but it will keep good coffee fresh.

Order Hills Bros. Coffee by name, and look for the Arab trade-mark on the can.

As the accuracy of the hour-glass depends upon an even, continuous flow... a little at a time

... so the uniform flavor of Hills Bros. Coffee is produced by Controlled Roasting—the patented process that roasts evenly, continuously, "a little at a time."

RANGE CHILD SAVES HIMSELF FROM LAKE

Vernie Winquist, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Winquist, Deerwood township, had recovered entirely today from a severe chill, the only ill effect from his falling through the ice of Town Line lake.

WORLD WAR VETS IN THIS DISTRICT TO TALK CLAIMS HERE

Ex-service men of the World War who claim unsatisfactory adjusted compensation and who have claims pending will benefit by attending the service school here Monday evening conducted under auspices of the American Legion, officials said today.

The meeting will be held in the Iron Exchange hall at 8 p. m. and will be presided over by Joyce Lewis, Long Prairie, district service officer for the Legion.

Out of the city invitations have been extended to veterans at Staples, Motley, Crosby, Ironton, Pequot, Pillager and Aitkin.

Commanders, adjutants and local service officers of district posts are particularly urged to be present.

Lewis will answer all questions pertaining to claims and legislation favorable to the veterans will also be discussed.

The district service officer was seriously disabled by machine gun bullets while fighting overseas in the World War and is dependent on the use of crutches to help him around. After the war he studied law and is well equipped to take up claims of ex-service men.

FAITHFUL SERVANT OVER 40 YEARS, DEPRESSION DOES NOT QUELL SPIRIT NOKAY LAKE UNIT

The reward to W. D. McKay, senior warden of St. Paul's Episcopal church for more than 40 years, comes in knowing and enjoying his work as a servant in the progress of his church.

McKay devotes many hours in the week to the benefit of the church of which he is a pioneer member. In business life, McKay is secretary of the Brainerd Water and Light department.

At the annual meeting of the parish last night, McKay was unanimously re-elected senior warden. R. R. Gould was named junior warden, Harry Carlson, clerk, and F. A. Farrar, Dr. R. A. Eisele and Judge L. E. Kinder, vestrymen for three years.

Farrar, treasurer, reported the financial condition of the church gave an encouraging outlook, stating that during the year 1931 the church met its yearly obligations while the response to pledges was gratifying.

Delegates elected to the Diocesan convention to be held in Duluth January 19-20 were: Levi Johnson, Richard Johnson and Frank E. Ebner. Alternates include the following: Dr. R. A. Beise, J. A. Swanson and G. W. Chadbourne. Rev. C. M. Brandon, rector of the church, was authorized to extend an invitation to the convention to meet in Brainerd in 1933.

R. A. Kasper, who drew the ring in the cake at last year's Epiphany party, provided the cake at last night's observance of the church custom. Farrar drew the ring and will provide the cake and ring next year.

The depressing ills of American agriculture were discussed by members of the Nokay Lake Farm Bureau at a meeting Thursday but the meeting was in no way depressing.

Seventy people attended the meeting, ate dinner of wieners and sauerkraut with apple pie for dessert and enjoyed themselves immensely in a good will get-together visitation.

Officers were elected as follows to carry on the work of the unit during the year 1932:

President—James Coffield.
Vice president—Arthur Peterson.
Secretary—Mrs. Arthur Johnson.

BUILDS GOOD HEALTH

Treasurer—Mrs. Fred Bock.
County Agent E. G. Roth spoke on the much discussed and studied question of "European Relations as Affecting American Agriculture."

Roth outlined several reasons why the average United States farmer is not prosperous, including the problem produced by Russia's dumping of farm products, the dispensing of the gold standard in foreign countries as harming the tariff and the adoption of higher tariff walls hindering the movement of U. S. commodities, and the loaning of huge sums of money to foreign countries embarrassing the U. S. financial structure.

Roth asserted that boycotting of foreign commodities may be necessary to cope with the problem.

The next meeting of the farm bureau was announced for Feb. 11. At that time the men will be hosts at an oyster stew dinner. Jim Coffield will be the chef. State Senator Chris Rosenmeier, Little Falls, will be the speaker.

"Sure, Sailor..I used to Roll my Own"

THEY TASTE BETTER... THEY'RE PURE...

THEY'RE Milder... They Satisfy

"I CARRIED the makin's for years. Got so I could roll 'em single-handed. But there's no real economy in it."

"The way I figure is this: A fellow don't spend so much on himself but what he can afford to enjoy the best in smokes."

"Myself... I smoke Chesterfields. They cured me of rollin' my own. First off, you get better tobacco."

"I'm not knockin' the makin's... but it stands to reason Chesterfields wouldn't be where they are today if they didn't give you the finest tobacco. I like their aroma."

"Plenty of Turkish in Chesterfields... and you don't get that in the makin's."

And there must be something about the blend, too... you can't get a milder, better taste... not anywhere!

"Got a right good opinion of myself, but I don't figure I'm as clever as those cigarette-making machines. Every single Chesterfield is round and filled right... beats anything you can roll yourself. Besides, it smokes cooler and lasts longer. I've tried both, so I know."

LOCAL POLITICS START BOOMING--

Alfred Y. three have filed their intention of seeking nomination for commissioner from the first district of Crow Wing county, and a fourth has announced that he, too, plans to throw his hat into the ring. This early season influx of candidates indicates a well-considered air with little or no knowledge of the possibilities until the balloting is over.

Although actual campaigns will await the coming of the spring, the fact that four have already declared their availability for the post indicates that Crow Wing county is in for an interesting race. Interesting from the standpoint of number and that obviously brings its attendant curbstone bickering.

CLEAN YOUR SIDEWALKS--

With winter bringing its attendant flurries of snow, it remains with property owners and tenants to see that the sidewalks in front of their premises be cleared as early as possible. The city takes care of the crossings and city property but it rests with residents to keep pace by removing the snow from the sidewalks.

Should residents neglect to remove the snow, the city will do it and assess you for the costs. It takes little effort for this work and every citizen should be imbued with that sense of pride to clear the sidewalks as early as possible after the snowfall.

THE GREAT LIBERAL--

It seems strange that Oliver Wendell Holmes should be leaving the supreme court because of the failing health that extreme age has brought him; for here, if anywhere, there seemed to be one man on whom age had no effect.

Conservatism often is the hallmark of age—yet Justice Holmes is, and has been for many years, one of the nation's foremost liberals. Nearly 91 years old, he has managed to keep what many of us lose before we reach half that age; an open, inquiring mind, a forward-looking attitude that is ever ready to hail a new horizon, a willingness to recognize change and a desire to meet that change unhampered by too great reliance on the precedents of the past.

Could such a man be called old? In years, of course; he has gone far beyond the scriptural allotment of three score and ten. But mentally he has been one of the youngest men on the bench, and he has given the nation's supreme court a tradition of liberalism that has leavened it for years.

And now he is retiring; and few Americans of any time had a finer record of service to look back upon.

It is startling to realize what a long period his active life spans. He served in the Civil War, seeing much of the hottest fighting of that fearfully sanguinary conflict, and being wounded in action three times—near Richmond, at Antietam and at Fredericksburg. He returned to Massachusetts, the distinguished son of a distinguished father, to finish his education, to teach law at Harvard and to serve for 20 years on his state's supreme court, leaving it only when President Roosevelt elevated him to the United States supreme bench.

Few men have compiled so bright a record. And yet it is not the record alone that has endeared him to his countrymen. It is a thing harder to define, harder to grasp—a thing that is most easily summed up in the overworked word of everyday conversation as "personality." It is what he is, more than what he has done, that makes his final retirement such an unpleasant bit of news.

Heaven knows Justice Holmes has earned a rest, and we cannot begrudge it to him. We can only regret that it finally became necessary for him to take it. In the quaint, old-fashioned phrase, "he has deserved well of the Republic."

OUR LIVING STANDARD--

The long awaited report on comparative living costs for American and European workmen, compiled by the International Labor Office at the request of Henry Ford, who wanted to know how much he should pay his European employees to put them on a par with his workers in Detroit, has at last been made public. It is a highly interesting document.

Living costs in Detroit are shown to be substantially higher than those abroad. Those of the Paris factory hand, for instance, are only about 80 per cent of those of the Detroit; in Manchester, the figure is about 75 per cent; in Berlin, slightly below 90 per cent. Part of America's high wages are eaten up by higher living costs.

But not all. The report shows that the American enjoys a far higher standard of living. Autos, radios, electric refrigerators and washing machines have a part in the American's life. The European workman never sees them.

PAYING REPARATIONS--

Germany's blunt announcement that no more reparations can be paid may be the beginning of almost anything.

If that announcement had been made a year or more ago, there is little doubt that French troops would have been marching into the Rhineland inside of 48 hours. So far, nothing of that sort has happened—which may be an excellent omen for the continued peace of Europe.

Nevertheless, it is extremely probable that something big is about to develop. The Treaty of Versailles, cumbersome since the day it was drafted, has grown rusty as well, and is creaking badly. It is not outside the bounds of possibility that this announcement about reparations may be the point from which ultimate revision of the whole treaty will date.

PROSPERITY AND MINCEMEAT--

Good news is not so plentiful these days that one can afford to overlook the fact that one of the country's largest producers of mincemeat, located in a small New Jersey town, has announced a pending increase in production to 350 tons a month—an increase which, it is said, merely reflects a greatly increased public demand.

If American citizens are eating more pie, it must be that things are a little bit better with them than was the case a short time ago. Surely, pie would not be more plentiful than ever in a land where business was getting worse instead of better.

Besides—it is always good to learn that the supply of anything like mince pie is increasing. Three hundred and fifty tons of mincemeat each month? That is none too much.

THREE KINDS OF LOVE

BY KAY CLEAVER STRAHAN

BEGIN HERE TODAY

ANN, CECILY and MARY FRANCES FENWICK live with their grandparents. The sisters have been orphaned since childhood. The grandparent—known as "BO-SALIE" and "GRAND"—have long since lost their wealth and the household is supported by Ann and Cecily's earnings. For this reason, Ann, 28, and PHILIP ECROYD, young lawyer, are still postponing their marriage though they have been engaged 8 years.

Cecily, 22, is in love with BARRY MCKEEL, an engineer, but when he proposes she refuses to name the wedding date because she cannot leave Ann with the financial responsibility of the home.

Mary-Frances, 15, and still in school, strikes up an acquaintance with EARL DEARMOUNT, stock company actor. She meets him secretly on several occasions.

Mary-Frances has led him to believe she is 18 years old. He tries to persuade her to become his partner in a vaudeville act.

Phil takes Ann to dinner and a girl she has never seen before sends him a note which he reads. Phil's explanations are vague and Ann decides to go home. On the way home she is stopped by a car and Phil stops to investigate.

Now ON WITH THE STORY CHAPTER XXVII

ANN did not need to listen; so she breathed a smallish, confused prayer to the gods of garage men that this particular knock in Phil's automobile might emanate from some source, any source, other than clogged piston rods.

Phil's responses to that special species of knock were invariable. He began by diagnosing the disease as fatal, since one mechanic named Jake Lucca had left town, and went frantically on from there.

His procedure was to drive the car for a few hundred yards and stop it, and leap out, and open the hood, and peer despairingly into the insides of the thing, and with an air of suppressing much prophecy that this was the end. Usually, since there was nothing else to be done, he would get into the car again and start it with difficulty, and go for a few hundred yards more before he leaped out and lifted the hood, and peered, and so on.

Cars, Ann had learned, suffering from this malady are moody, hysterical things; they will knock like a woodpecker and then, once in a while, they will stop and refuse to go another step until, after a short rest, they will pick up with a spurt and stop knocking and pretend that nothing has ever been the matter with them.

If a garage is in sight they will recover completely—cars with diseased piston rods dread garages—until the place has been left miles behind. Then, worn out with the extra exertion of simulating strength where there were only weakness and courage, they will break down for a time and refuse to budge. Ann knew her piston rods. But Phil was a proud man, and thrifty, and to drive a seemingly healthy car in a garage, no subject himself, or his patient, to a charge of neuroticism and four or five dollars, was a performance which he would take no part. So they always shed by the garages and broke down in some lonely spot on the highway. And then Phil would leap out, talking about Jake Lucca, and open the hood and peer at the piston rods. Stronger women than Ann have gone to pieces with less provocation than that afforded by piston rods.

CONVERSATION during calamity is heartless and footless, crippled and offensive, so Ann had long since ceased attempting it. They rode in silence, except for the knock. Phil had his head cocked to one side so that never a vibration of sound should escape him, and Ann had ever so much time to think about the girl who wrote notes that needed to be burned at once, and Phil's night work of late, and the girl's antagonism in the garage.

They had passed a garage in a small town, five miles back, so a relapse was due, and it came, scheduled precisely, on a deserted stretch of road. Phil leaped out; this made the ninth or tenth time within the hour. Ann, too, got out of the car—she usually did so: it seemed more helpful.

Phil lifted the hood and looked at the engine. Ann stood and watched the lights of an oncoming automobile growing larger and larger. She found no encouragement in the fact of its approach. Another of Phil's conventions concerning piston rods was a refusal to ask for aid from other motorists.

Jake Lucca alone, in a world full of men, could repair piston rods, and Jake was leagues upon leagues away.

The lights grew larger still, and dangerous seeming, and Ann stepped out of the glare just as the car—the sportiest sort of sports model—slowed and stopped, and a girl's voice called, "Hey, hey, Phil! Some more trouble!"

Phil had started the engine and had his ear to its breast so that he could hear the knocks. Ann recoiled farther into the shadows.

Letty stepped from the car, and crossed to Phil, and said, her childish voice raised high above the groans of the engine, "What is it, old dear? Piston rods again?"

Phil lifted his head, but he did not come back to a complete consciousness of the outside world—a heartless, knockless world where piston rods were of secondary importance. A voice that he knew had greeted him, and he returned the greeting abstractedly.

"Hello, Letty," he said to Miss King, whose first name he was unsure of, could not really remember.

If one small cat slinks out of a bag, wisdom may attempt to capture. If dozens of spry black cats, loosed possibly on purpose and all at once, plunge forth to trip and skip and caracole into the night, confounding wisdom, courting and frolicking with folly, nothing much can be done about it.

Letty's next remark, addressed to Ann in the shadows and made with one hand on Phil's arm, was "Doesn't the poor darling have the foulest times with his old piston rods?"

Ann came forth and was introduced as Miss Fenwick to Miss King, and Miss King said politely, "Phil's told me a lot about you."

Miss King's escort came along. His name was Mr. Smith—a nice easy name to remember, and he was glad to know everyone, or so he said. He disclaimed all knowledge of things mechanical, but offered to give Phil a tow, if Phil had a rope. Phil had no rope.

Letty said to Phil, "Say, listen, sweetheart-darling..." Ann had retreated again to the shadows, so the might have been out of earshot.

Kenneth Smith was right there until he walked back to the sports model and climbed into it.

Phil said, "Never mind that, now Letty," and she said, "Yes, but I want to tell you..."

Phil said, "Don't go, Ann. Stay here." And Ann kept right on going, and Letty kept hold of Phil's arm.

Kenneth said to Ann, "Some crush over there," as if he were in pain, and Ann said brightly, "Yes, it does seem so."

Kenneth sighed; Ann did not. Kenneth offered, "She makes me sick, if I do say it. She uses it as a well woman, but since she's gone, I don't see how she can be any more."

Ann said, "Can't see a heavy dance, can't see a couple dance after dinner; can't see a damn thing but sheiky and trailing him around. I'm fed. I'm bloated. I'm through. I'm not doing bloodhounding for a living. Not yet."

Ann said sweetly and with sympathy that she did not blame him in the least.

Kenneth opened the car door. "Won't you get in and sit down and wait?"

"Thank you," Ann accepted. "I'll get in and sit down," she said, and she sank into the wide depth of the seat, "but why wait?"

Kenneth said, after a moment, "I get you. I'd go in a hurry if I saw your car wasn't busted down."

"It isn't," said Ann. "...s his damn" (from Ann!)—"tuberculosis. The car would run well enough. I get home if he'd run it instead of listening to it and looking at it. He'll have to, sooner or later. He has a knock in his engine—that's all. They will get home in good order, in time."

"Sure of it?"

"Positive. Listen to his engine. It will run."

"I'm on!" said Kenneth, and reached with a gesture of violence for the clutch, and he and Ann were off.

G. O. P. Picks Chicago as Convention City

And here's Chicago's new stadium—built two years ago and one of the most modern convention halls in the world—where the G. O. P. national convention will be held in June. It seats 25,000 and is only seven minutes from the heart of Chicago.

FRENCH ATHLETES TO OBSERVE PROHIBITION
Paris, Jan. 15.—(UP)—Members of the French Olympic team will observe strictly United States' prohibition laws in favor of bananas at the Olympic games in Los Angeles, Ferdinand Cuny, veteran Olympic trainer, reported to the French Olympic committee today.
Cuny declared, in his report, that "dry" athletes who eat enough bananas can win over wine or beer-drinking contestants 90 per cent of the time.

Yes, when we have four hundred and five men and women in this country with an income of a million dollars a year, and thirty-two of them drawing over nine million a year, and these four hundred and five owning or controlling 85 per cent of the industry of the country what else can we expect.
They have pulled the same bone in industry Napoleon pulled when he went out to conquer the world. He extended his lines so far into other countries that his men froze and starved to death, likewise industry has committed the same sin. They have speeded up production to such a point, where, I think I am safe to say, that if they put every available man to work in their factories, they can produce enough in three months to supply the whole United States and a considerable part of Europe to last for a whole year.
Now this system would be alright if they would advance the buying power with the speed of production, but that is the trouble today, they forget the buying power end of it so now a man can't buy some of the goods he produced a year or so ago, because his buying power stopped long before his production was consumed.
Now, these people will have to be supported, but not by the ones they produced for, but by those who were just a little bit more fortunate than they.
Yes, the democrats will win next time because Mr. Hoover and his high finance bunch made jackasses out of so many of us.

CAGE BRAINS TO TRIUMPH TONIGHT IN H. S.-C.-I. CLASH

OPPOSING TEAMS TO TEST SECRET PLAYS AND GUARD TACTICS

ATTEMPT TO BE MADE BY EACH TEAM TO OUTSMART THE OTHER

Smart basketball will feature the classic between Brainerd and Crosby-Ironton high schools here tonight.

Practice in secret. Secrecy marked this week's practice as mentors of the teams are planning new offense plays to outsmart the other.

The game will be outside the excitement of an ordinary basketball meet. One or the other team may revert from its season style of defense play. Both teams have concentrated on the shifting ball zone defense. Both teams are practically certain to play the two styles of defense, zone and man to man, shifting them to determine the weakness of the other. The strength of each team will be tested as neither have been tested before this season. The game should be one bordering on the realm of hysterical tension for the fans. Crosby-Ironton may attempt immediately at the start of the game a barrage of long shots to gain an edge. Brainerd will play systematic basketball, waiting for opportunities to score sure baskets.

Whatever happens in the first three periods, a furious pace is assured in the final stretch as neither team will admit defeat until the final whistle.

Bank On Reserves

Incredible as it may appear in the face of the Rangers' strength, reserve players for Brainerd may win the game for the blue and white. Young Bill Smith will bear watching if he is sent into the game. The youngster has an uncanny eye for the cage on occasions. Two phenomenal field goals, classed by a great many as lucky, scored by Smith in the Brainerd-Valley City game started the Brainerd team on the path to victory. The boy has not yet demonstrated passing ability to insure a regular berth on the team but his willingness to scramble for possession of the ball and his weird scoring ability makes him an invaluable reserve player in the pinches.

The veterans of the squad, Bob Wyck, Elmer Foster, Gerry Wyck, Maurtee Larson, Joe Gabioli will stand the test of the battle. Cool headed Swanson may see action to steady the team if a nervous excitement grips the players.

Piper to Handle Game

Taking everything into consideration Brainerd is amply qualified to cope with every situation provided by the big bats from the Cuyuna range.

Just how strong each team will be is doubtful brought out tonight.

Reservations doors at the Washington high school will be opened to the public at 6:45 p. m. Two preliminary games will be played at 7 p. m. and the main event will start at 8 p. m. Piper of the University of Minnesota will referee.

Crosby-Ironton will be represented by over 300 fans.

In a private stall, pampered like a prima donna by trainers and handlers, the six-year-old wonder horse of the Antipodes was aboard the Monowai due at quarantine in the early morning hours.

St. Louis Promoters Bid for Title Bout

St. Louis, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Miguel Malloy, Chicago promoter who wants the title, has joined forces with Tom Packs, St. Louis wrestling promoter today, and said "an impressive bid" would be made for the title bout.

Malloy said he and Packs reached their decision to make a "real offer" for the bout after long distance telephone conversations with Joe Jacobs, manager of Schmeling and Jimmy Johnston, of Madison Square Garden.

HARVARD PUCKSTERS NOSE OUT COPHERS

Boston, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The Harvard hockey team defeated the University of Minnesota 7 to 6 last night after staving off a desperate last-minute rally.

After outclassing the visitors and coasting along with a 7 to 2 lead, Harvard withstood a savage Minnesota attack that netted four goals in six minutes.

With the score 7 to 6, Harvard was thrown on the defensive.

It was only when Harvard's forwards were replaced that Minnesota was checked. In the last minute the Minnesota goalie was replaced with a forward giving them six men to charge the Harvard net in a final effort to tie the score.

Score by period:

Harvard 3 3 1—7
Minnesota 1 1 4—6

Harvard scoring: Cunningham (2); Wood, Saltonstall, Baldwin (2); Palmer.

Minnesota scoring: Toth, LaBar, Gibbs, Schaeffer, Parker (2).

YANKEES FORM BIG THREAT TO END ATHLETICS' THREE-YEAR REIGN IN A. L.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The New York Yankees threaten to end the three-year reign of the Philadelphia Athletics during the 1932 season.

At the close of the 1931 season the Yankees were playing the best baseball in the league, and the present outlook is that New York will be still stronger the coming season.

The Yankees have 41 players, the largest squad in the league, including 17 youngsters, the largest group of new talent added to any club. The Yankees seem to have power, pitching strength and reserve strength. If there is anything the Yankees need which they don't have, it is another winning right-handed pitcher and they have nine rookies, four with major league possibilities.

The Yankees' infield of Gehrig, Lazzeri, Lary and J. Sewell finished last season as the strongest inner defense in the league, and yet two rookies may break in as regulars in 1932. They are Jack Saltzgaver, second baseman from St. Paul, and Frank Crosetti, shortstop from San Francisco.

Saltzgaver, who batted .340, was rated as the best infielder in the American Association last year. Crosetti, who cost the Yankees $75,000 when he was purchased two years ago, batted .344 and led the Pacific Coast League in runs scored with 144. Saltzgaver is 27 and Crosetti 21. If Crosetti makes good, Lynn Lard is likely to move to third in place of Sewell.

Babe Ruth, beginning his 19th season in the majors, has shown no signs

Ruth Seeks Contract $70,000 Two Years

New York, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The salary clash between Babe Ruth and his employer, Colonel Jacob Ruppert, is expected to be settled well in advance of spring training.

Ruth yesterday refused a one-year contract for $70,000, a reduction of $10,000 from last year's salary.

But, in view of the Babe's stated willingness to accept $70,000 a year on the basis of a two-year contract and in view of previous compromises between Ruth and Ruppert, it is generally believed the two will shortly agree upon a compromise figure.

SCHMELING - WALKER GO FAVORS CHICAGO

New York, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—The proposed Max Schmeling-Mickey Walker heavyweight championship bout may be held in Chicago this winter, Joe Jacobs, manager of Champion Schmeling, said today.

As soon as the boxing commission in Chicago was informed yesterday that the Schmeling-Walker fight, planned for Miami, Feb. 25, had been cancelled, a spokesman for the commission immediately telephoned Jacobs that every effort would be made to bring the bout to Chicago.

Jacobs said the spokesman expressed confidence that the necessary $200,000 could be guaranteed Schmeling for risk of the title. And if the Illinois legislature soon passes a law permitting 15-round bouts the match will be there, Jacobs said.

Turns Out Winners

Along with the new year, Herbert N. (Buck) Read, above, is starting his 11th season at the helm of the Western State Teachers basketball quintet at Kalamazoo, Mich. And look at his record. Over 10 years the Kazoo cagers have played 179 games, winning 134 and losing but 45 games. That makes a winning percentage of .749—not at all bad. 1932 Kazoo quintet is principally a sophomore aggregation but they defeated Chicago and held Michigan to a six-point margin.

DEMPSEY IN SECOND TOUR OPENING FEB. 1

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Jack Dempsey will begin his second exhibition tour about Feb. 1 and make approximately 17 appearances in the middle-west and east, Leonard Sachs, the former heavyweight champion's manager, announced today.

The tour will end about April 1 when Dempsey will lay off for six weeks. Dempsey will begin training again in May and be ready to essay his second comeback either in June or July against any opponent selected by the public.

During the tour Dempsey will appear against any fighters selected by the promoter in the city in which he is appearing.

"Dempsey will meet any opponent selected for him," said Sachs. "He will take on Max Baer, King Levinsky, Johnny Risko, Paolino, Dave Maier or any others. He will either box two opponents two rounds each or one opponent four rounds. They can name the size gloves to be used but no glove heavier than 12 ounces will be used by Dempsey."

The only definite date made so far is Milwaukee Feb. 8. The other cities in which Dempsey will appear are: Cleveland, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Atlantic City, St. Louis, Philadelphia, New York, Baltimore, Louisville, Cincinnati, Toledo, Hartford, Conn., New Haven, Conn., Boston, Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Dempsey already has resumed training at Reno, Nev.

STAGG PLANS LOTTERY TO ENTUSE GRIDDEES

Chicago, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Coach Amos Alonzo Stagg of the University of Chicago has a plan to inspire interest among members of his football team next fall.

His plan as outlined at a banquet for the squad is a weekly lottery in which each man will attempt to guess the score of the week's game. The prize will be 10 cents posted by the coach himself.

Critics of the plan hinted it smacked of professionalism.

Loughran Favored to Defeat Steve Hamas

New York, Jan. 15.—(U.P.)—Tommy Loughran, veteran ring craftsman, is a 7 to 5 favorite to defeat youthful, rip-slasher Steve Hamas in their scheduled 10-round bout at Madison Square Garden tonight.

Loughran, the 30-year-old boxing master from Philadelphia, recently received a severe trouncing from King Levinsky of Chicago.

Hamas, 23-year-old former Penn State grid star, has been in the ring only 13 months, but during that time he has won all of his 26 fights, 23 of them by knockouts.

(Published in the Brainerd Daily Dispatch, January 15, 1932, 1T.)

Minutes of Meeting of the School Board, School District No. 66, Crow Wing County, Minnesota, Held January 13th, 1932.

Pursuant to due call and notice thereof of a special meeting of the School Board of School District No. 66 of Crow Wing County, Minnesota, was duly held at the schoolhouse in said district on the 13th day of January, 1932, at 1:30 P. M.

The following members were present: R. Benson, Margaret Kemper, Emma Rodan, and the following were absent: None.

Member Margaret Kemper introduced the following resolution and moved its adoption:

Whereas on December 17th, 1931, this school board adopted a resolution authorizing the issuance of $22,100 in bonds to be exchanged for those said certain bonds and warrants described in a certificate signed by the board members and filed on said date with the clerk thereof, and

Whereas a substantial portion of the said bonds have already been exchanged and it was found in the final exchange that the accrued interest on said outstanding bonds was greatly in excess of the accrued interest estimated according to the records of the Treasurer, and

Whereas it becomes necessary to increase the original issue by an additional amount of $1800.

Now Therefore Be It Resolved by the School Board of School District No. 66 of Crow Wing County, Minnesota, as follows:

1. That this Board has investigated the necessary facts in order to determine, and does hereby find, determine and declare that the assessed valuation of all taxable property in a list District, exclusive of moneys and credits, according to the assessment rolls for the year 1930, is $2,562.00, and that the outstanding bonds and floating indebtedness of said district is in the aggregate in excess of 20% of such assessed valuation and that the bonds and floating indebtedness to be refunded as hereinafter mentioned are each and all valid, outstanding and enforceable obligations of said School District which an action for the payment of which it has no lawful defense, and that each and all of said bonds and floating indebtedness are proper to be refunded under and pursuant to Chapter 231, Laws of Minnesota, 1927, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.
